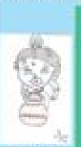
No matter what the odds may be, belief dictates that there is a way

T.Raja ravindra VII xi.

Krishna Chaitanya

Sai Charani VII

A.Aruna VII



K.Chandini VII

Jayanth Grade: V

M.Chandana
Grade: VII xi.

[illegible]

[illegible]

THE FLAVOUR OF FRINDSHIP

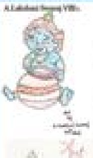
The flavour of friendship,
Has a scoop of delightful times,
And is layered with strong undying faith.
It has a dollop of pleasant companionship.
It is topped with wonderful memories,
That are dear.....
And has a cherry of a delightful shared experience.
It is fresh with special joy,
And will always charm us both,
As the flavour of friendship,
Is an everlasting one!

T. Varshini
Grade : VIII xi.

[illegible]

[illegible]

K. Supriya Grade: VII



A.Lakshmi [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Geethika Grade: VII

[illegible]

[illegible]

Shanvitha
Grade: IX xi.

[illegible]

S. Sanjana
Grade: VII xi.

[illegible]

VIGNAN GLOBAL GEN SCHOOL, BHOGAPURAM,ELURU. Ph.no. 98663 99908
08812 212599

THE DREAMER AND ACHIEVER WHO TRANSFORMS OTHERS INTO ACHIEVERS OF THEIR DREAMS
Dr L.Rataiah garu, Chairman Vignan institutions

VIGNAN VIGOUR

[illegible]

[illegible]

Geethika Grade: VII

S. Sanath
Grade: IX

Mohan Krishna Grade [illegible]

MOTHER THERESA

"The hands that serve are better than the hands that pray" said Mother Theresa. She dedicated her whole life till her last minute to serve the Humanity. She was born on Aug 27th 1910 in Yugoslavia. Her name was Agnes Goshan Bojakshu. At the age of 18, in 1928 she joined as a nun at Order of Loreto, from that moment till her last minute, she had been serving the people and she changed her name as Sister Theresa in the year 1929 and came to India to work as a teacher in the Loreto school. She was told by the God to serve the poor and needy, from then she stayed in Calcutta. She got permission from the Pope to carry an individual service. In 1948, she was called Mother Theresa. In the 1948 she established a charitable trust named "Missionaries of Charity". After some days she established an Orphanage named Nirmal Hruday. She said "My work is just a drop when what is needed is an ocean of compassion"

She died on September 5th, 1997.

Jayanth
Grade: V

DR. SARVEPALLI RADHAKRISHNA

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishna was born on Sep. 5th, 1888 at Tiruttani. During his youth, Radhakrishna was greatly influenced by Swamy Vivekanada's speeches.

Radhakrishna began his career as a teacher and was appointed as Assistant Professor of Philosophy in Presidency College, Madras. He was great thinker and writer. He wrote an edition of the Bhagavad-Gita, published in 1948. In September, 1949 Radhakrishna went to Moscow as an ambassador. Later, he was the Vice-President of India from 1952 to 1962, and then became the President in 1962. In 1954, he was awarded the Bharat Ratna. The government of India, on request of the national federation of teachers declared that his birthday, September 5, would be celebrated as teacher's Day. When Radhakrishna passed away on April 17, 1975, the country lost one of its noblest men.

Jayanti Chandini
Grade: VII

[illegible]

[illegible]

Gokul Sumanth, Grade: VI xi.

Your attention please......!

Hi..! friends...
create an activity / skit on: How can u develop unity among ur classmates ?
Drop ur ideas in activity box.

from Grade VIII students.

[illegible]

[illegible]

S.Ravi kumar
Telugu Faculty

By planting trees we return to a more natural & less artificial environment